

The Blazed Trail

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE

Copyright, 1903, by Stewart Edward White

The river man frowned steadily at his interlocutor from under his bushy brows.

"How much pine you got?" he asked finally.

"About 300,000,000," replied Thorpe quietly.

The old man's blue eyes fixed themselves with unwavering steadiness on Thorpe's face.

"You're jobbing some of it, eh?" he submitted finally as the only probable conclusion. "Do you think you know enough about it? Who does it belong to?"

"It belongs to a man named Carpenter and myself."

The river man pondered this slowly for an appreciable interval, and then shot out another question:

"How'd you get it?"

Thorpe told him simply, omitting nothing except the name of the firm up river. When he had finished Shearer evinced no astonishment nor approval.

"You done well," he commented finally. Then, after another interval:

"Have you found out who was the men stealin' the pine?"

"Yes," replied Thorpe quietly. "It was Morrison & Daly."

The old man flickered not an eyelid. He slowly filled his pipe and lit it.

"I'll get you a crew of men," said he, "if you'll take up as foreman."

"But it's a little job at first," protested Thorpe. "I only want a camp of twenty. It wouldn't be worth your while."

"That's my lookout. I'll take the job," replied the logger grimly. "You got 300,000,000 there, ain't you? And you're goin' to cut it? It ain't such a small job."

Thorpe could hardly believe his good fortune in having gained so important a recruit. With a practical man as foreman, his mind would be relieved of a great deal of worry over unfamiliar details. He saw at once that he would himself be able to perform all the duties of scaler, keep in touch with the needs of the camp and supervise the campaign. Nevertheless he answered the older man's glance with one as keen and said:

"Look here, Shearer, if you take this job we may as well understand each other at the start. This is going to be my camp, and I'm going to be boss. I don't know much about logging, and I shall want you to take charge of all that, but I shall want to know just why you do each thing, and if my judgment advises otherwise, my judgment goes. If I want to discharge a man, he walks without any question. I know about what I shall expect of each man, and I intend to get it out of him. And in questions of policy mine is the say so every trip. Now, I know you're a good man—one of the best there is—and I presume I shall find your judgment the best, but I don't want any mistakes to start with. If you want to be my foreman on those terms just say so, and I'll be tickled to death to have you."

For the first time the lumbering man's face lost, during a single instant, its mask of immobility. His steel blue eyes flashed; his mouth twitched with some strong emotion. For the first time, too, he spoke without contemplative pause of preparation.

"That's the way to talk!" he cried. "Go with you? Well, I should rise to remark! You're the boss, and I always said it. I'll get you a gang of bully boys that will roll logs till there's skat in Topket."

Thorpe left, after making an appointment at his own hotel for the following day, more than pleased with his luck. None the less, he anticipated his next step with shaky confidence. He would now be called upon to buy four or five teams of horses and enough feed to last them the entire winter, and he would have to arrange for provisions in abundance and variety for his men; he would have to figure on blankets, harness, cook camp utensils, stoves, blacksmith's tools, iron, axes, chains, cant hooks, van goods, pails, lamps, oil, matches, all sorts of hardware—in short, all the thousand and one things, from needles to court plaster, of which a self-sufficing community might come in need. And he would have to figure out his requirements for the entire winter. After navigation closed he could import nothing more.

Deep in these thoughts he wandered on at random. He suddenly came to himself in the toughest quarter of Bay City.

Through the summer night thrilled the sound of cacklings pointed to the colors of mirth. A cheap piano shoulders. It confirmed the hopeless but sullen despair that brooded on the white countenance.

At the hotel Thorpe, examining the cut, found it more serious in appearance than in reality. With a few pieces of sticking plaster he drew its edges together.

Then he attempted to interrogate his find.

"What is your name?" he asked.

"Phil."

"Phil what?"

Silence.

"How did you get hurt?"

No reply.

"Were you playing your fiddle in one of those houses?"

The cripple nodded slowly.

"Are you hungry?" asked Thorpe, with a sudden thoughtfulness.

"Yes," replied the cripple, with a lightning gleam in his wolf eyes.

Thorpe rang the bell. To the boy who answered he said:

"Bring me half a dozen beef sandwiches and a glass of milk, and be quick about it."

"Do you play the fiddle much?" continued Thorpe.

The cripple nodded again.

"Let's hear what you can do."

"They cut my strings!" cried Phil, with a passionate wail.

The cry came from the heart, and Thorpe was touched by it. The price of strings was evidently a big sum.

"I'll get you more in the morning," said he. "Would you like to leave Bay City?"

"Yes!" cried the boy, with passion.

"You would have to work. You would have to be chore boy in a lumber camp and play fiddle for the men when they wanted you to."

"I'll do it," said the cripple.

"All right; then I'll take you," replied Thorpe.

The cripple said nothing nor moved a muscle of his face, but the gleam of the wolf faded to give place to the soft, affectionate glow seen in the eyes of a setter dog. Thorpe was startled at the change.

A knock announced the sandwiches and milk. The cripple fell upon them with both hands in a sudden ecstasy of hunger. When he had finished, he looked again at Thorpe, and this time there were tears in his eyes.

A little later Thorpe interviewed the proprietor of the hotel.

"I wish you'd give this boy a good cheap room and charge his keep to me," said he. "He's going north with me."

Thorpe lay awake for some time after retiring. Phil claimed a share of his thought. In an hour or so he dozed. He dreamed that the cripple had grown to enormous proportions and was overshadowing his life. A slight noise outside his bedroom door brought him to his feet.

He opened the door and found that in the stillness of the night the poor deformed creature had taken the blankets from his bed and had spread them across the door sill of the man who had befriended him.

rattled and thumped through an open window. Men's and women's voices mingled in rising and falling gradations of harshness. Lights streamed irregularly across the dark.

Thorpe became aware of a figure crouched in the doorway almost at his feet. The flickering rays of a distant street lamp threw into relief the high lights of a violin and a head. The face upturned to him was thin and white and wolfish under a broad white brow. Dark eyes gleamed at him with the expression of a fierce animal. Across the forehead ran a long but shallow cut from which blood dripped. The creature clasped both arms around a violin. He crouched there and stared up at Thorpe, who stared down at him.

"What's the matter?" asked the latter finally.

The creature made no reply, but drew his arms closer about his instrument. Thorpe made a sign to the unknown to rise.

"Come with me," said he, "and I'll have your forehead attended to."

The eyes gleamed into his with a sudden savage concentration. Then their owner obediently arose.

Thorpe now saw that the body before him was of a cripple, short legged, hunchbacked, long armed, pigeon breasted. The large head sat strangely top heavy between even the broad

RIVERS RAMPANT

From Pittsburg Come Reports of the Worst Flood in Its History.

OUTLOOK IS SERIOUS

Not Since the Memorable Flood of 1884 Have the Conditions Been So Threatening.

The Situation Is Not Local, But Extends Over a Wide Area.

Pittsburg, Jan. 22.—The worst flood in the history of western Pennsylvania since the establishment of the weather bureau at this point, is expected here tonight. Never before have the existing conditions and the outlook been so serious as now. Experienced river men and people who for years have watched river and weather conditions do not hesitate to state that a stage of thirty-five feet will be reached, which is 1.7 feet higher than the flood of 1884.

Heading the warnings given out by the weather bureau and from past experiences, residents living on the banks of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers began to meet the impending danger, which it is asserted at the weather bureau, nothing can stop. The river interests are also preparing and are removing such property as would be damaged by water and ice.

Forecaster Ridgeway has given out the following statement: "The rivers are rising at a rate of 2-10ths of a foot an hour. Over the Monongahela valley the rainfall has averaged .50 of an inch; over the Allegheny valley it has averaged 1.12 inches. Until the ice has moved out of the rivers, no one can tell what stage will be reached, for until the ice is gone the crest of the flood will not get to Pittsburg."

The snow is still on the ground all over the two valleys, and this is holding back the rain. When it lets go the rise will likely be rapid. A flood stage is probable by tonight. Conditions indicate continued unsettled weather and more rain. There is no decided fall of temperature in sight.

WABASH OVERFLOWING

Indiana Feeling the Force of the January Thaw.

Lafayette, Ind., January 22.—Considerable damage is already reported throughout the country by reason of the heavy floods in creeks and the Wabash river. The river has risen twenty-two feet in the last sixteen hours. All bottom lands are inundated, causing great loss in fences, out-buildings and small stock. Connorsville, a suburb of this city, is already covered by the flood. Fears are entertained that the new strawboard works will be under water by evening, which will result in great damage to valuable machinery. It is still raining and the river is rising at the rate of a foot per hour.

Alarm at Keokuk.

Keokuk, Ia., Jan. 22.—A repetition of last summer's flood seems probable. A gorge has formed at the mouth of the Des Moines river, and the water has backed up over miles of lowlands in the Missouri and Iowa bottoms. The Fox river has overflowed its banks. Indian Grove levee, two miles south of here on the Mississippi and the Lima Lake levee, broke today, causing heavy losses to farmers having land in wheat. The ice still holds in the Mississippi but the water has risen two feet in twenty-four hours.

Zanesville People Moving.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 22.—The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has loaded coal trains across three bridges of the Licking river between this city and Dillon Falls where the ice is gorged ten feet high. Dynamite was used to break the gorge and the waters of the stream are pouring into the Muskingum river at this place in an alarming manner. Residents of the flat portion of Zanesville are moving from their homes preparatory to the general flood which is looked for from this stream.

Ohio Fears Floods.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.—The big ice gorge at Higginsport, O., sixty miles above Cincinnati, broke last night, but on reaching the waterworks pier at Coney Island, ten miles above here, the ice reformed and will probably hold fast for a while. No serious damage has been reported so far. It is estimated that the gorge was twenty miles long. Since the break the river here has been falling at the rate of three inches per hour.

The Situation in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Jan. 22.—An almost continuous fall of rain for the last thirty-six hours carrying off the snow has caused freshets in practically all Ohio streams. The danger at many places has been greatly increased by the breaking up of ice in the streams and the formation of gorges. The Scioto river is out of its banks at many points north of Columbus.

Gunboats Patrolling Coast.

Colon, Jan. 22.—No change has occurred in the situation on the Atlantic side of the isthmus. The American gunboats are still patrolling the coast as far as Cape Tiburon to the south east.

STATE CONVENTION TALK

Many Republicans in Favor of Getting Ticket Out Early.

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Many Republican leaders are in favor of holding the state convention on April 21 and 22, the dates of the last convention. If these dates are not selected it is very probable the convention will be held the middle of the following week.

Most party leaders are in favor of an early convention. A few only are holding out for a date as late as the middle of May. Chairman Goodrich and H. C. Starr of Richmond, a member of the executive committee of the state committee, are going to Washington tomorrow afternoon to consult with the members of the Indiana delegation, and it is very probable that the date will be fixed then. The candidates are now securing headquarters at the English hotel, and the activity among them betokens the approach of the big event. It is believed the convention will be a record breaker this time, although there will not be so many delegates, but there will be an enormous attendance of party workers.

The annual meeting of the Republican editors today was a success. The lobby of the Claypool was crowded with well-dressed and prosperous looking men who fill responsible positions in the various communities of the state. The banquet and reception last night were as enjoyable as could have been expected, although much regret was expressed that Senator Beveridge and Congressman Watson could not fill their places on the program. The principal speaker was Charles L. Henry, editor of the party organ, who is now winning his first spurs in the newspaper field. Charles W. Stivers of Liberty, president of the association, presided as toastmaster. Plates were laid for 100 guests. The session today was of a business nature, a number of very excellent papers being read. During the afternoon a matinee party was given for the wives of the editors and other visiting ladies.

Frank Smith of Lawrenceburg, who was here today, says he will make up his mind within the next week whether or not he will run for the Republican nomination for reporter of the supreme and appellate courts. It is believed now that he intends to run. Smith is chief deputy under Revenue Collector Ambrose Nowlin. George Self of Corydon, an avowed candidate for reporter, was here today attending the meeting of the Republican editors and incidentally getting in touch with the political situation. There is a prevailing impression that whoever receives the nomination will have Self to beat for it. The Third district has endorsed his candidacy and he will also have a large following from southern counties.

L. P. Newby of Knightstown was one of the Republican candidates attracted to Indianapolis today by the editorial meeting. He still has no opposition for lieutenant governor, although many are of the opinion now that G. A. H. Shideler of Marion, who has been talked of for governor but who has formally withdrawn from that race will enter the race. Newby's friends, however, are very confident that he will be successful. Governor Durbin, it is stated, is pulling all the strings he can for him. It is not very likely now that Walter Ball of Muncie or Hugh Th. Miller of Columbus will enter the race.

The events of this week have again made the fact paramount that Indianapolis is one of the greatest convention cities in the country. The miners—a thousand of them—are here in annual convention. The lumbermen have just closed a big convention. The trustees are here now. The Republican editors have a large crowd today, the carmen and carworkers the day before, and so on until it would seem that about everyone is meeting in Indiana. The Prohibs are now preparing for their national convention, and the "Pops" may also come.

Engaged in Target Practice.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The navy department is advised that the battleships Kentucky, Oregon and Wisconsin have left Manila for Olongapo to engage in target practice. They will be joined in a few days by the cruisers New Orleans, Raleigh, Albany and Cincinnati, now on their way from Guam to Manila.

Water Was Fatally Charged.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 22.—While Frank Alexander was driving through an alley his horse was killed by electricity. The driver left his wagon to hold the horse to its feet and he was severely shocked when he stepped into a pool of water. The water had been charged by a wire that went into the ground.

In Trouble With Uncle Sam.

Chicago, Jan. 22.—Postoffice inspectors arrested A. F. McIntyre, formally of St. Louis, on the charge of operating a get-rich-quick concern. It is alleged by the postal authorities that in St. Louis he was at the head of a brokerage and banking concern which did an illegitimate brokerage business.

Nobody Was Injured.

Vincennes, Ind., Jan. 22.—The B. & O. S-W. passenger train crashed into a local freight near Olney, twenty miles west of here, knocking six freight cars off the track and demolishing the passenger engine. Nobody was injured.

WOMEN PRAISE IT.

There are thousands of women today praising the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. When they were run down and in need of a health restorer and regulator they were persuaded to try the Bitters with the result that they now enjoy perfect health. All sickly women should try it at once. Besides curing all Female Complaints it is also unequalled for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Insomnia, and Constipation.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS,

INTERESTING INCIDENT

A Striking Example of "Economy" in Postoffice Service.

Washington, Jan. 22.—An interesting incident in the trial of August W. Machen, the Groff brothers and the Lorenz on an indictment charging conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sale of letter-box fasteners came just before the usual hour for adjournment last evening. Throughout the day bank officials had been on the stand testifying concerning various checks and drafts which passed between D. B. Groff and Martha J. Lorenz and George L. Lorenz and Machen. After J. W. Herring, cashier of the Union National bank of Westminster, Md., had told of the various transactions of Machen with his bank, Mr. Taggart, assistant district attorney, offered in evidence the transcript of Machen's entire dealings with that institution, to the admission of which Charles A. Douglass objected. Taking up the document, Holmes Conrad, special counsel for the government, contended that it was admissible and remarked that in looking over it, it appeared that by strict economy Machen, on a salary of $3,500 a year, had managed to make $29,000 a year. This brought forth a storm of protest from counsel for the defense, who appealed to the court to let the defendant Machen be tried on only one charge at a time.

KEEPING IT QUIET

Whereabouts of the Prince of Korea a State Secret.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The Korean minister at Washington and his staff are guarding zealously the whereabouts of Prince Euiwha, who, according to a report, will replace his father on the throne in the event that the Korean emperor is deposed. The minister says that the prince's movements necessarily are confidential for the present. It is learned, however, from an attaché of the legation that the prince was expected in Washington this month, but has not yet arrived. He had trouble last year at Delaware, Ohio, where he was attending college, and left there some time ago. It is said that the prince was in New York incognito not long ago. At the legation there is considerable excitement over the events in Korea. What effect the crisis there will have on the movements of the minister and his staff is not certain, but it was hinted at the legation that some of the legation personnel if not all of them, were prepared to leave Washington on short notice.

Frozen in Refrigerator Car.

St. Louis, Jan. 22.—A body identified by Chinese letters and papers found in the pocket, as Leong Yekie of Toronto, Ont., was found in an ice-stocked refrigerator car that had just reached St. Louis from Montpelier, Ind., to be loaded. The conclusion is that Yekie had been living in Toronto and had smuggled himself across the line. His presence in the car is accounted for in that he attempted to steal a ride and was unable to open the car door after drawing it shut.

We Know What

Is going to happen to the little boy who is stuffing himself with green apples. A grown man couldn't be induced to try that experiment; and yet the grown man will overload himself with indigestible food for which he will pay a greater penalty than colic. It is this careless and thoughtless eating which is the beginning of stomach trouble and all its painful consequences.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other forms of "stomach trouble." It restores the weak and run-down man or woman to sound health.

"Some time has elapsed since I have written you in regard to the treatment I have been taking under your instructions," says Mr. E. F. Cingmarr, of Minneapolis, Minn. "When first I commenced taking your remedies I was under treatment of a well-known specialist in this city (and had been for four months), for catarrh, and especially stomach trouble, and I was rapidly getting worse. Got so bad that I could not eat anything that did not distress me terribly, and I was obliged to quit taking the doctor's treatment entirely. I was greatly reduced in flesh. As a last resort I wrote to you and stated my case, and, after receiving your instructions I followed them closely. After taking five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets' I commenced to improve, and decided to continue the medicines and observe your instructions regarding hygienic treatment. It is now nearly six months since I commenced your treatment and I can say that I am well and never feel better in my life. Am very grateful to you for what your medicine has done for me."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

FRIDAY JANUARY 22, 1904

It has leaked out that the Indianapolis News has flipped coppers with itself to decide on which side of the political fence it will be this year. Independent paper you know.

RIGHT now is the time when teamsters should be careful to protect the gravel roads. They are more interested in good roads than any other class of people. They should help protect them. A few loads, heavier than the law allows when the roads are soft, do gravel roads much damage.

THE annual meeting of township trustees is an outgrowth of county and township reform in this State. The trustees fill an important place in local government, and it is a good idea for them to meet once a year and discuss methods and measures. If the people were wise they would keep good trustees in office as long as they continue to give satisfaction.—Journal.

Political Gossip.

Lieutenant Governor Gilbert has decided to be a candidate for congress in the Twelfth district. His many friends over the state want to hear later of his nomination and then his election.

L. E. Jennings, at present city clerk, is the first candidate for auditor to publicly announce his candidacy. But Billy Humes and H. W. Wacker have been out among the brethren talking privately of their ambitions.

County Mail Service.

Louis Ludlow, Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis Star, sends a dispatch to his paper that Senator Beveridge has called up the matter of a full rural mail service for Jackson county and that the Department had promised to take the matter up as soon as petitions now on file were disposed of.

Sermon in English Tonight.

Rev. Schuff, who is assisting Rev. C. E. Severinghaus in the meetings at the German M. E. church, will preach in English tonight. Come out and hear him.

Rev. Wamsgraber, pastor of the German Lutheran church at Columbus is dangerously ill. His condition was very critical yesterday.

The indications this afternoon are for colder weather again. Some snow fell about 2:30 o'clock and more is looked for tonight.

Experienced.

"How is the new girl going to do?" asked Mr. Ferguson.
"She hasn't had much experience," said his wife, "but I think she will be all right when she gets broken in."
Then came a loud sound of falling crockery from the kitchen.
"She seems to be making a good start, anyhow," observed Mr. Ferguson encouragingly.—Chicago Tribune.

THE ABEL TRIAL.

Defense Still Introducing Evidence.—Self Defense the Plea.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Jan. 22.—The defense in the Abel trial has been introducing evidence since the state rested Wednesday afternoon and will probably not get through until Saturday morning. The theory of the defense is self defense. The first testimony of the defense introduced were the depositions of John and Andrew Johnson who were laborers on Abel's farm and saw the tragedy. They both swore that Chas. Abel began the assault and that defendant warned him twice not to strike him. Said, "quit! hitting me or I will have to kill you," but that Charles Abel continued to strike and the two shots were fired by defendant, the last one causing the death of Chas. Abel. Joe Campbell, another one of Abel's farm hands who saw the shooting testified about the same as the Johnsons.

Another important witness for the defense was Miss Nettie Gossett who testified that she heard some one say, "I want my money." Did not know who said it; heard Cudwith Abel say, "I haven't the change just now," heard the other repeat "I want my money now;" heard Charles Abel say he did not want to follow him over town for his money; saw Charles Abel strike Cudwith Abel; the second blow knocked Cudwith to his knees; heard Cudwith say, "Don't hit me any more or I will have to shoot you;" saw Cudwith Abel fire first shot over head of Charles Abel. That after first shot was fired, saw Charles Abel strike Cudwith twice and then saw Cudwith fire again and saw Charles fall; that after seeing the fatal shot fired witness ran to and hid behind a tree near Quick's store; that afterward went back to the place where the body of Charles lay; that several persons had already congregated; that witness was at body before Cudwith returned; that George Schlechter was there and when asked by someone what the trouble was about heard Schlechter say it "was about a nickel or a dime;" heard no talk between George Schlechter and Cud Abel.

Mrs. Maude Gossett testified along the same line as this. Hugh Quick also testified that he heard the loud talking on the night of May 16 and heard Cudwith Abel say, "If you strike me again I'll shoot you."

Dr. A. J. Banker testified that defendant had been a patient of his for twenty years and that he was in bad health May 16, 1903. That his nervous condition was bad, that he walked with a cane. W. C. Smith testified that he saw defendant on May 16, and he was walking with a cane.

Going back to the evidence of the prosecution to show one of the strongest features of the evidence submitted by the state, which evidence the defense is endeavoring to break down, we give the testimony of Mrs. Ross, whose home is near scene of the shooting. She was a witness for the state and testified in substance as follows:

"Saw Cudwith Abel on the evening of May 16th at about 8:30 o'clock; heard him talking about the killing of Charles Abel in which talk Abel asked Schlechter what it was to him; that Abel also said to Schlechter, 'G-d d-n you I'll put a bullet through you' and that there were 'three or four others here that ought to be served the same as him,' pointing to the body of Charles Abel, lying on the ground; that after the controversy with Schlechter, Abel left and witness did not know where he went; that just after the shots were fired, she recognized a voice as Cudwith Abel's saying, 'G-d d-n you, I told you I'd kill you and I am glad of it.'"

Mrs. Mary Tuttle, another witness for the state, testified that half an hour after the shooting she was beside or near the body of Charles Abel and heard the conversation between Cudwith Abel and George Schlechter during which Cudwith asked Schlechter "what have you got to do with it?" "I'll put a hole through you."

The defense has introduced many witnesses today, some to strengthen the theory of self defense and others to establish the character of the defendant. This afternoon it was thought that it would take until nearly noon tomorrow for the defense to get through. The trial will last at least two days next week.

The Rev. Bolton began a protracted meeting Sunday, the 17th.

Mrs. Alice Price of Scottsburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ira Gillasp.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Short and Uneventful Session of City Council.

Mayor Shields presided over the council proceedings last night and Ahlbrand, Miller, Gibson, Price, Huber and Adams answered to roll call. Stewart, Leroy Miller and Biacer came in early in the session. After the minutes were read and adopted the following business was transacted:

The finance committee reported that the annual reports of the treasurer and clerk had been audited and found correct. Approved.

The fire committee reported that there were three vacancies in the fire department and recommended that Oscar Jerrell, J. B. Russell and August Keel be appointed to these places. Report approved.

The special committee to which was referred gas ordinance was granted further time.

The city marshal said that the jail needed some repairs to make it safe. He was authorized to have repairs made. Estimate cost five dollars.

The names of firemen entitled to tax exemption was read and referred to the fire committee.

The bill of the city commissioners for $18 for services on Ewing street sewer was referred to committee on accounts and claims.

The report of the city commissioners making assessments against abutting property. They said that there were no damages to assess and no objections were made. The total cost of the sewer was $953.44.

A resolution was adopted directing the city clerk to give ten days' notice of this report and that the council will consider same February 4, when objections of owners of abutting property, if any, will be heard.

On motion of Adams, the clerk was directed to draw an order for $7.20 to cover the expense of councilmen who went to Indianapolis to hear the argument in the water works case.

On motion of Huber, John Staudt was instructed to lower his sidewalk in front of the Fair store.

On motion of Leroy Miller the marshal was instructed to raise the smoke stack at his feed mill to a proper height and put on a spark arrester.

The clerk was directed to cinder the sidewalk along his property on Seventh street.

On motion of Miller, the street commissioner was instructed to look after the drainage at Kisselman's corner and at A. D. Shields' office.

On motion of Stewart the street commissioner was instructed to repair the crossing at Oak and Poplar streets.

On motion of Price, the street commissioner was directed to clean off all stone foot crossings.

Council adjourned at 7:45.

HOW EAGLES FIGHT.

A Furious Battle Between Two of the Big Birds.

A small party of gentlemen, most all of whom had tinges of sporting proclivities in their blood, were discussing the subject of chicken fighting. An old farmer from Rappahannock county, Va., broke into the conversation. "Gentlemen," said he, "in my time I have seen some bang up chicken fights, but the greatest fight I ever saw was a contest between a bald eagle and a gray eagle near my old place in Rappahannock."

"This fight took place on the bank of the river. I couldn't forget it if I lived to be as old as Methuselah. I was the only spectator and saw the struggle from start to finish. The bald eagle had caught a muskrat and was about to eat it for breakfast when the gray eagle soared down and attempted to rob the other one of its prey. Then commenced the combat, and Lord, how the feathers flew! They fought with wings, beaks and talons, and I could hear the talons crack when they struck and tore each other. The sounds made by their wings as they buffeted one another were like explosions of musketry, while their screams and yells sounded demoniacal. The battle lasted fully fifteen minutes and wound up with a victory for old Baldy, who drove the gray eagle away and then resumed his interrupted breakfast."

"Oh, yes, there are a great many eagles up in my part of the state," said the old agriculturist in reply to a question. "There are plenty of high rocks and lofty trees whereon they build their nests. We farmers do not give them any latitude, however. Whenever one of these big birds is seen soaring about the poultry yard, or, in fact, anywhere about the farm, it's Johnnie, get your gun, because it not infrequently happens that good sized chickens, young lambs or little pigs are carried away by them, so they're very unwelcome visitors."—Washington Star.

SHUTTING GAS OFF

Wabash Consumers Resist the Latest Demand of the Company.

RATES WERE RAISED

By Reason of an Arbitrary Advance Bills Were So High Consumers Refused to Pay.

As a Consequence Scores Are Being Deprived of the Use of the Fuel.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 22.—Scores of consumers of natural gas are being cut off by the Logansport and Wabash Valley Gas company in this city for failure to pay gas bills. The company arbitrarily advanced the rate from 19 to 25 cents Nov. 1, and the December bills were so large and the service was so unsatisfactory that many of the patrons disconnected and substituted other fuel. They now decline to pay for December service. General Manager Murdoch has appealed to the city officials. The latter claim inability to interfere, and raise the point that the city council never acquiesced in the boost of rates, and that the increase is in violation of the franchise. The company, it is understood, will file a number of suits against patrons who have failed to settle before disconnecting.

PLUMBERS ARE OUT

Objected to Their Employers Taking Place of Workmen.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 22.—Journeyman plumbers in six large shops in this city have struck as a result of the action taken by the master plumbers several days ago, when they assumed the character of workmen and aided George H. Asire, a contractor, in completing a job for which he held a penalty contract. The fight, which was formerly confined chiefly to Asire, will now be waged, it is said, against the five bosses who aided Asire—John Holland, J. H. Rodefer, J. B. Messenger, John Hildebrand and William Whitehead.

The master plumbers say they will import men to take the places of the strikers. Other unions of the city have voted financial aid to the strikers. The Plumbers' union has appealed to the supreme court from the decision of Judge Lairy in the circuit court in granting an injunction against the union on the request of George Asire.

Fatal Gas Explosion at Marion.

Marion, Ind., Jan. 22.—A natural gas explosion wrecked the Seltz hotel building, killing three people, fatally injuring two and seriously injuring ten. The following is the list of killed and fatally injured: Charles Beitel, proprietor of the hotel; Mrs. Charles Beitel, wife of the proprietor; James Devlin, proprietor of the cafe. Fatally injured—Edward Gaskill, L. H. Hobbs. Natural gas is said to have escaped from a pipeline that passed near the building, the basement being filled, and when the rooms on the first floor began to fill with the gas it was ignited by the jets which were left burning. It is said there were thirty guests at the hotel at the time of the explosion, and how any of them escaped from the pile of burning and twisted debris is remarkable.

Men Demand Full Wage Scale.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 22.—Secretary St. Peter of the window glass workers' organization headed by Simon Burns, is here conferring with local members of the organization. St. Peter stated that a strike is being declared by the L. A. 300. The first Indiana workmen to go out were those at Gas City, and others to be ordered out are at Duns Kirk and Hartford City. It is demanded that the manufacturers pay the full wage scale agreed on at the Philadelphia meeting last fall.

Going After Gun "Packers."

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 22.—Judge Piety of the circuit court is doing what he can to break up the reckless use of pistols in the Fontaine mining neighborhood. He has sentenced Jas. Rogers to prison for shooting Perry Johnson, and Andrew Patterson was sentenced for shooting Ira Parrott and George Heine.

Claim for Damages.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Jan. 22.—Wm. P. Squibb of the Squibb Distilling company has brought suit in the Dearborn circuit court against the Big Four Railway company for $10,000 damages growing out of the death of his son Samuel, who was one of the students killed in the Purdue university train wreck.

Fatal Wreck on Traction Line.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 22.—James Mahoney, trainmaster of the Union Traction company, was fatally injured and two others badly hurt by a collision between a motor car and a freight on the Anderson-Marion line last evening.

Work of Anti-Toxin Trust.

Boston, Jan. 22.—As laws of the commonwealth forbid the sale of anti-toxin outside of the state, the board of health was obliged to refuse the request of the health authorities of Chicago for a quantity of anti-toxin. The state authorities here were informed that the Chicago board is unable to purchase anti-toxin needed to check the spread of diphtheria in that city on account of the prohibitive prices established and they therefore appealed to Boston for help.

Internal Revenue Collections.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that the total collections for December, 1903, were $20,577,790, a decrease for the month of $166,061. For the six months of the present fiscal year the receipts exceeded those for the corresponding period last year by $2,554,065.

St. Louis Theaters Will Resume.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22.—All the St. Louis theaters except the Odeon will get new licenses to replace those revoked two weeks ago. Building Commissioner Helmburger having found they are complying with the law. The Odeon has been erected since that time.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To The People of Seymour.

From W. F. Peter Drug Co.

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in Seymour in regard to a lyrtised medicines and their value—the papers are full of them.

We want to say to every man, woman and child in Seymour that we believe the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil—the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength creator—we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and, moreover, it is delicious to the taste.

Vinol acts first upon the stomach, tones up the digestive organs, creates an appetite, purifies and enriches the blood and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequaled to create an appetite and to make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold everywhere on a positive guarantee that, if it does not give satisfaction, the entire purchase money will be refunded. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Farmers' Institute Resolutions.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were adopted by acclamation:

"Recognizing that this Institute has been one of the most successful ever held in Jackson county, and realizing the extent to which our success is due to the efficiency of its officers, we extend to each of them our sincere thanks.

To the state and home workers; to the musicians and singers who have enlivened every session; to the Knights of Pythias for the use of their hall, and to the citizens of Seymour for their very cordial support and encouragement, we make grateful acknowledgment.

To the people of Jackson county we extend congratulations, for the agricultural progress that has been made by them, with the hope that they will let no opportunity for self improvement, self advancement and self protection pass unimproved, and, as one of the most important and valuable means to this end, we commend to them The Farmers' Institute."

A Good Story.

Since it was announced that "Quincy Adams Sawyer" was to be played here March 7, the REPUBLICAN secured a copy of this story. We find it a very interesting book, splendid material for a drama. It is full of human interest and we are convinced that the play will prove popular.

YOUNG WOMAN MURDERED.

Bedford School Teacher Killed by Party Unknown.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

BEDFORD, Ind., Jan. 22.—The people of Bedford are aroused over the murder of Miss Schaefer, a high school teacher, last night. Her body was found in an alley this morning. The supposition is that she was assaulted on the street as she was on her return from her boarding house to her room and her body dragged into the alley by the murderer. An ugly wound on the head shows that she was struck a terrible blow by her assailant. Miss Schaefer's home was at Elkhart. She was a teacher in the high school and was held in high esteem by all.

Every effort will be made to apprehend and punish the murderer. An effort was made today to secure bloodhounds to put on the trail. The officers have been busy all day on different clues.

Have Right-of Way.

It would be well for drivers of wagons to remember that all United States mail carriers have the right of way in public highway when on duty. They can not be driven into the ditches by heavy loaded wagons without violation of the United States mail law, and if a collision is made by so doing and the mail delayed it will not be long thereafter until a deputy United States marshal will be looking for certain parties who will answer to roll call at Indianapolis. This law applies not only when meeting a vehicle but applies to those in front of the mail as well, when the mail makes an effort to pass.

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman. The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

RUSSIA'S PRIDE

May Prevent a Successful
Termination of Present
Negotiations.

BREAKDOWN IS FEARED

Concessions Which Are Said to Be Acceptable to Japan Do Not Preserve Russia's Pride.

Strong Influence Being Brought to Bear on Czar By Powerful War Party.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22.—The foreign office does not offer any indication of when the Russian reply to Japan will be ready. Some of the strongest men in the empire are working to secure a successful termination of the difficulty, the main feature being a breakdown of the negotiations, but they are meeting with opposition on the ground that concessions which are acceptable to Japan do not preserve Russia's pride.

London, Jan. 22.—Cabling from Moscow, a correspondent says that Grand Duke Vladimir, commander-in-chief of the St. Petersburg military division, and Grand Duke Sergius, the military commander at Moscow, are strongly supporting Viceroy Alexieff and that the czar, although anxious to avoid

GRAND DUKE VLADIMIR.

war, is now wavering. A Pekin correspondent has cabled a corrected and minutely detailed list of all the Russian military forces in the far East, east of Lake Baikal in eastern Siberia and including the frontier railway guards, which shows a total of 3,115 officers, 147,479 men and 266 guns.
The correspondent adds that the line of communication between Manchuria and western Siberia is a single line of lightly constructed railway which traverses 1,500 miles of unfriendly country. He says further that the entire Russian fleet with the exception of four armored cruisers at Vladivostok, is now wedged in the harbor of Port Arthur, where only one dock is available for repairs.

It is announced that Premier Katzura is convalescent and about to resume his duties. From New Chang a correspondent reports that all the British and American employees of Russian firms are leaving Port Arthur and that the Yokohama specie bank has closed its offices at New Chang.
Various special correspondents report riots in Korea, but without giving details.

The correspondent at Chefoo cables he is able to confirm the report that Viceroy Alexieff has dismissed many officials at Port Arthur upon the discovery that instead of having on hand provisions for an army of 200,000 men for two years, as had been supposed, there were only sufficient stores, of an inferior quality, for six months.

Under date of Constantinople, a correspondent cables that although there is no present intention of moving the Russian Black Sea fleet, there is little doubt that if the necessity arose Russia would not wait to ask Turkey's permission to make this move, but would suddenly appear at the mouth of the Bosphorus and be out of the Dardanelles within eighteen hours, knowing well that the Turks would be unable to resist unless backed by a strong European fleet.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS

House Talks Tariff and Senate Discusses Panama.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The army appropriation bill was under consideration in the committee of the whole for five hours, most of which time was devoted to a general discussion of the tariff question. Mr. Hull (Ia.), chairman of the committee on military affairs, explained the provisions of the army bill and Messrs. Parker (Rep., N. J.) and Prince (Rep., Ill.) paid tribute to the army as now organized.
The only opposition to the army bill was made by Mr. Baker (Dem., N. Y.), who said he was opposed to war.

Mr. Platt of Connecticut concluded his speech on Panama in the senate.
He defended the course of the president throughout the Panama revolt and eulogized the executive personally as brave and fearless. Mr. Morgan spoke in explanation of the bill for the annexation of Panama to the United States, basing his argument on the ground that the pending canal treaty practically contemplated that result.

Pick Out Your Lot.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Representative Thayne of Massachusetts introduced by request an amendment to the constitution providing that the lands of the United States shall be so divided as to give each citizen of the country eight acres in as nearly a square piece as possible.

Congressional Inquiry.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The war department is asked to detail to the house the amount and source of money it has expended in the promotion of flying machine experiments, in a resolution introduced by Representative Hitchcock of Nebraska.

THE BECHTEL CASE

Mother of Murdered Girl on Stand for Hours.

Allentown, Pa., Jan. 22.—Mrs. Catharine Bechtel, whose trial on the charge of being an accessory after the fact to the murder of her daughter, Mabel, has been in progress here since last week, took the witness stand in her own defense. She was on the stand for four and a half hours and proved a good witness. She told a plain straight-forward story in a low, plaintive voice which frequently broke as she related the incidents and conversations that wrung her heart.

Briefly stated Mrs. Bechtel positively denied that her son, Tom, killed Mabel or that she had guilty knowledge of the crime. Under cross-examination the commonwealth failed to shake her story. Mrs. Bechtel is a Pennsylvania German and the entire proceedings were carried on in that Pennsylvania German dialect, which was understood not only by the judge, jury and attorneys, but by most of the spectators in the crowded court room.

Another Outbreak Promised.

Sofia, Jan. 22.—General Zontcheff, who commanded the Macedonian insurgents last fall and who has just returned to Sofia from a tour of Europe, says that he regards a Macedonian outbreak in the spring as a certainty. He believes the appointment of foreign officers to the staff of the commandant of gendarmes to be a step in the division of Macedonia into sections, which will be occupied by the troops of the interested powers until final pacification is effected.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks.
Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Bosclee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Investigating Boedling.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22.—The grand jury is continuing the investigation of the alleged demand by members of the house of delegates for money as a prerequisite to the passage of the Terminal franchise bills. Dr. A. J.
Hammerstein, member of the house of delegates, told of an alleged statement that he could get $975 for his vote on the bill under certain conditions.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says, "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it, I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by

How to Burn Gas Coke for the Best Results.

In order to burn Gas Coke satisfactorily, build your fire even and deep;
remember, you cannot get or keep a good fire with Coke unless you do.
Owing to its peculiar fractured and rough grain it does not pack so closely as hard coal and leaves more in-spaces; to overcome this you must keep a deeper fire. After the Coke is well ignited, shut off the draft; if you do not want much heat, you can regulate your fire perfectly with the damper. Be sure to keep a good supply of Coke on the fire; you are not using as much weight of Coke as you would hard coal.

When leaving the fire for the night, put on plenty of Coke, and shut off the draft entirely, leaving a good bed of ashes on the grates to check the draft.
